

Using Microsoft Office

Last Modified on 06/28/2024 1:45 pm PDT

Office is available for free for Students

Students can download Microsoft Office for free by visiting <https://www.microsoft.com/en-us/microsoft-365/download-office>

Make sure to sign-in using your Cal Lu email address and password.

Office as an Application

Microsoft Office comes pre-installed on Cal Lu devices.

Note: Signing into office may override the granted license. If you need to sign-in to access certain functions within Microsoft Office, please email or call the Help Desk for assistance - helpdesk@callutheran.edu / 805-493-3698

Office in the Browser

You can use Microsoft Office from any personal device by going to <https://www.office.com> and signing-in using your Cal Lu credentials.

Downloading to a Personal Device is no longer available

The licensing agreement has changed (July 2024) and Microsoft no longer offers office as a download for Cal Lu adjunct faculty, faculty, or staff.
